Zeinapur's "Only Love Remains" is a poignant and heart-wrenching tribute to the artist's late nephew, Marlon Labovitch. The track beautifully captures the pain and devastation of loss while reminding us of the enduring power of love. Zeinapur's vocal range is nothing short of incredible, with a high note in the chorus that echoes Allegri's famous high C in "Miserere." This deeply personal song showcases Zeinapur's lyrical prowess as well as their spiritual connection to music. As the first single from their upcoming album, titled "Only Love Remains," this track sets a powerful tone for what promises to be an emotional and cathartic release on December 8th.

About Zeinapur

Zeinapur comprises vocalist Roksana Zeinapur hailing from Latvia via Tajikistan, and the guitarist/producer David Labovitch out of the United Kingdom. Now based in Los Angeles, the duo lean into their respective strengths to create a unique style, perhaps best characterized as Lana Del Rey meets Pink Floyd. Trained classically, Roksana is of Russian and Persian heritage. She has performed across the globe from the esteemed Lincoln Center in NYC to LA's Walt Disney Hall, and was awarded a finalist in Graz, Austria's famed Meistersinger Competition. She is the Vocalist-in-Residence at the Sonic Open Orchestra, and has had her work as a poet published in The Los Angeles Press. With his background in film scoring, David is best known for scoring the cult classic "Dementia Part II". As a guitarist, he was honored to place as Finalist in the Guitar Slinger Showdown competition. Born of English and American roots, he proudly holds dual citizenship. Zeinapur amalgamate their wide-spreading cultural and professional experiences to create a highly nuanced, genre-defying sound that is truly one of a kind. Zeinapur has been swiftly making waves through LA's vibrant live music scene, with performances at Hotel Cafe, GoldDiggers, SoFar Sounds, The Viper Room, El Cid, and many more.
